NAWRS PRIVACY POLICY

Last Revision: June 27, 2013

NAWRS is a 501(c)3 non-profit with the central goal to improve the delivery of social services through rigorous policy analysis; evidence-based decision making; and productive collaboration among state and local governments, research institutions and federal agencies.

FACTS	WHAT DOES NAWRS DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?
WHY?	We collect personally identifiable information for specific, limited purposes. • The primary purpose is outreach and communications with the human services community. Outreach efforts may include surveys for feedback on the Annual Workshop or the Organization. • The secondary purpose is to process your registration or sponsorship transactions.
WHAT?	The types of personally identifiable information collects for its mailing lists include: • First and Last Name • Agency Name • Email Address • Whether You are a Speaker at the Annual Workshop • Date of Registration (to minimize the chance of duplicate mailings)
HOW?	Communications are sent from NAWRS to provide information about the organization, its Annual Workshops, the Research Academy and our sponsors. Communications are sent from Official Sponsors of the Annual Workshop to announce their support for the work of NAWRS and other members of the human services community. Messages typically include brief descriptions of the Official Sponsor and its goods and services.
CAN YOU LIMIT THIS SHARING?	You may opt out of receiving outreach and general announcements about NAWRS, the Annual Workshop, the Research Academy and/or our Official Sponsors at any time. Please contact the NAWRS Secretary via email to notify us of your choice to opt out of receiving email communications from NAWRS or the Official Sponsors of the Annual Workshop. The Secretary is an elected NAWRS officer so we ask that you check our website at www.nawrs.org and click on the NAWRS Board Members link to obtain the correct address of the Secretary.
REVISIONS	NAWRS asks that you review this policy periodically since we may amend our privacy policy in the future. We will consider your continued visits to our website after the date that revisions are posted as your implied agreement to the changed terms.
