You Say...They Think

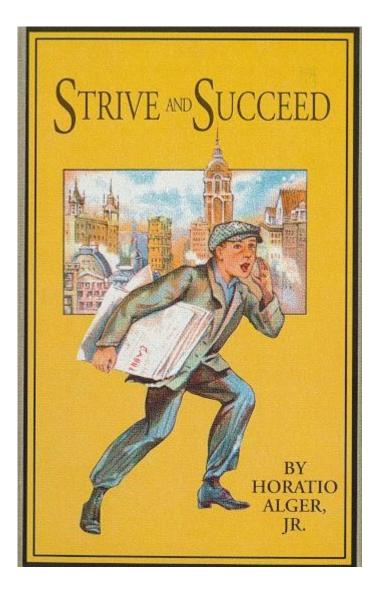

In these tough times people need more support, not less! This is no time to cut funding to human service issues. In tough economic times, people who get those programs have a better quality of life than the rest of us! Must be nice to have someone else pick up the tab...

Cultural Models

What is well-being?

- Financial Self-Sufficiency
- Physical Health

A Starte

What threatens well-being?

- Lack of Willpower
- Bad Parents
- Dangerous Communities

Human Services SWAMP

How do we improve well-being?

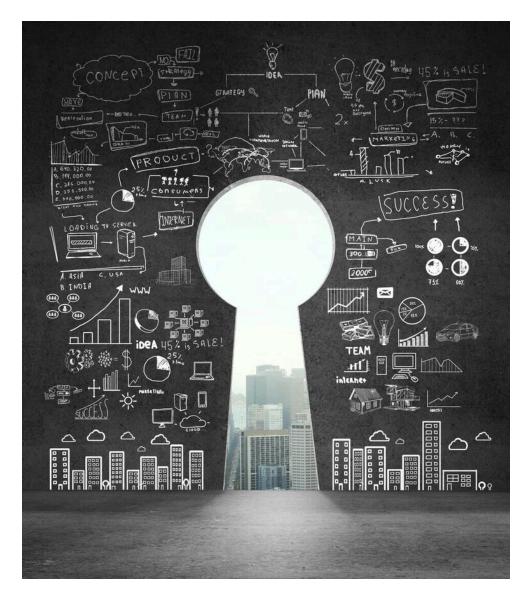

- Individuals are Responsible
- Government is Inept and Corrupt
- Informal Networks

What are human services and how do they work?

- Cognitive Hole
- Direct Services
- Kindness and Charity
- Only the Basics and Temporary

The Solution: Framing

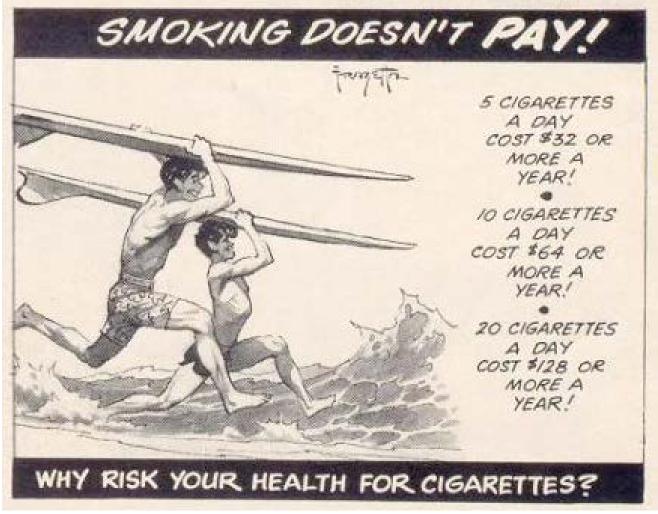

Why does framing matter?

People will respond differently to the same core idea depending on how the idea is described

Human Potential:

Human services help everyone to reach our potential, so we can all contribute fully to our communities

Human Potential

Your issue matters because...

"When we support well-being, we make sure that everyone can reach their potential and fully contribute to our communities."

Redirect public perceptions from:

- Individuals are Responsible
- Well-Being = Financial Self-Sufficiency
- Well-Being = Physical Health

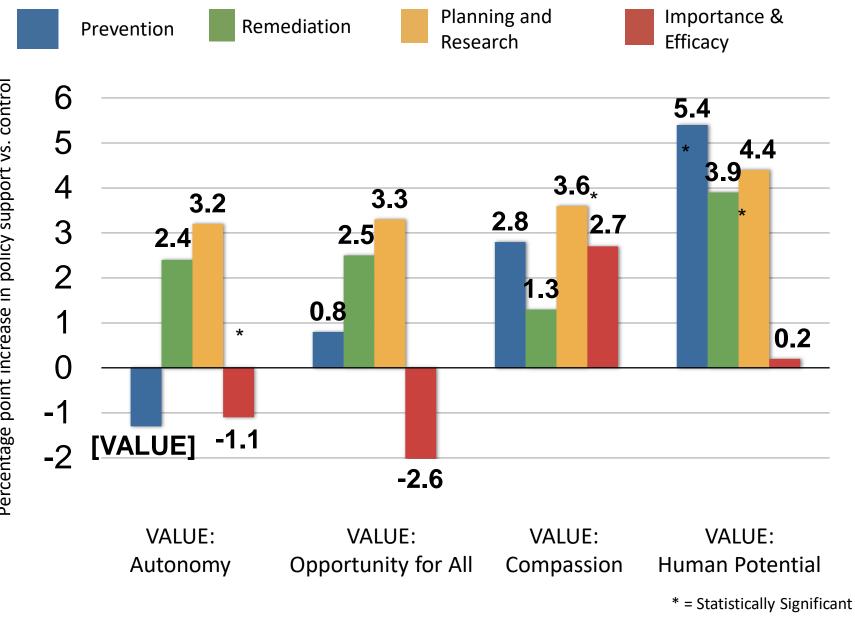

Conveys human services as:

• Applicable to everyone

 When people reach their full potential, everyone benefits

Which Value works? That's an empirical question.

HSC strengthens the not-for-profit human services sector's ability to improve the lives of New Yorkers in need. Reframed with Potential

HSC strengthens New York's nonprofit human services sector, ensuring all New Yorkers, across diverse neighborhoods, cultures, and generations reach their full potential.

Building Well-Being

Emphasizes the need for support and reinforcement throughout a lifetime

Describes well-being as something much more than meeting basic needs

Implies a sense of communal responsibility (can't build a house by yourself!)

Human Services Collaborative of Greater Peoria

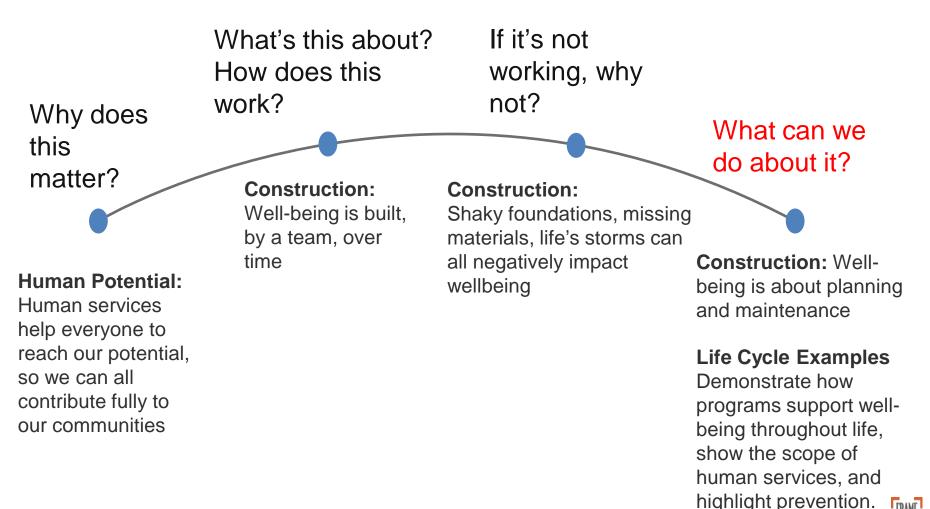

Building A Greater Community

Community well-being is the set of values, principles, policies and programs which enable everyone to reach their potential and fully contribute to a community. The mission of the Human Services Collaborative is to build a greater Peoria area by recognizing the impact of—and leveraging support for—everyone's well-being.

Well-being is built just like a home is built. A home is not a collection of boards and nails and shingles. It contains all those pieces and more, but it doesn't become a great place to live until everything is correctly fastened together. Similarly, a community provides well-being when everyone can access economic stability as well as educational, cultural and social opportunities; everyone has medical care; and everyone feels cared for and safe. Only then can individuals reach their full potential.

Life Cycle Examples

- Be specific. Concrete examples. Drop jargon.
- Provide examples of planning, prevention, and remediation. Reinforce a broader understanding of the functions of human services.
- Emphasize a diverse array of recipients. Broadening understanding of recipients is critical to cultivate support for human services.

Which of these Life Cycle Examples is framed most strategically?

Violence threatens Americans in every stage of life: infant neglect, childhood sexual trauma, and elder abuse are all occurring at epidemic proportions in our society.

When we establish a strong foundation for well-being through early learning programs, build on it through advocacy for youth development, and shore it up through opportunities to stay engaged throughout adulthood and later life, we make sure that our communities remain safe and vibrant.

Children who participate in Head Start have benefits throughout their lifespan, from academic gains in elementary school, to decreased absences from school as adolescents, to reduced involvement in crime as adults.

Causal Stories

"If the governor does not act, CPS will be forced to end school 13 days early, which means over 380,000 kids will not have adult supervised activities in June and could possibly be put in harm's way."

-Chance the Rapper at a press conference in Chicago, March 6, 2017.

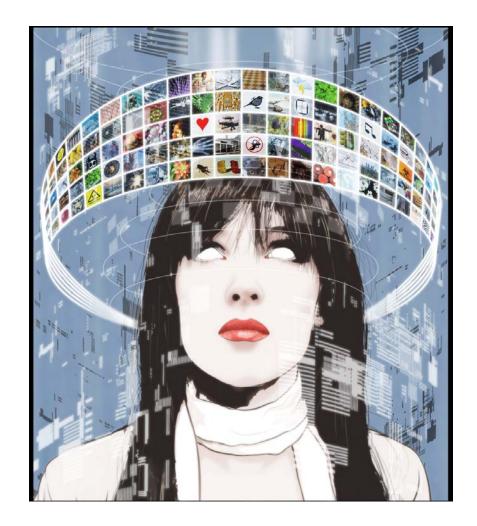

Do No Harm

- When we focus on the characters, we see less of the setting
- Vulnerable, Needy, Charity, Safety Net
